Presenting and Facilitating Professional Learning

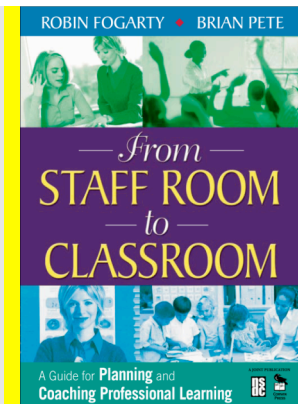

Did You Know? A presenter has 90% seconds to make that good impression? Skillful facilitation requires "on your feet" decisions about pacing and purpose?

How does the expert present information with wit, with authority and with ease? What makes an effective, "Sage on the Stage"? How does the presenter share his/her knowledge base with skill and grace? In turn, how does the skillful facilitator guide the professional development plan, monitor moment-to-moment pacing, and determine the wants and needs of the groups? In this session, participants polish basic presentation tools: Opening with Pizzazz, The Heart of the Matter and Closing with Keepers. At the same time, participants learn the skills of the "guide on the side": Inviting the Interaction, Involving all Participants and Interpreting the Enduring Results of the Group Effort? Using a powerful tool called the Morphological Grid, participants develop presentation outlines that move them beyond their usual comfort zones and into creative presentations that engage their colleagues.

Robin Fogarty talks about what she loves . . .

"Professional Development (PD) includes an entire array of models for school staff that include: seminars, books studies, workshops and trainings. PD by Robin Fogarty & Associates is specifically designed and delivered by experts in a field of curriculum development, instructional strategies and assessment techniques. The PD focus is on in-depth learning for school improvement. The goal is to deliver PD that transfers, directly and immediately from "the staff room to the classroom" for teachers, mentors, academic coaches and school leadership.

The most expensive staff development that you can buy, is the on that teachers do not transfer back to their classrooms.
